Across the hills of ole' Virginia,
There comes a melody divine.
It fills our hearts with deepest longing,
And sweetest memories entwine.
It brings back thoughts of dear old school days,
And friends we love so true.
So while we're singing,
Voices ringing,
Love we're bringing you.
RAH! RAH! RAH!
Hail Narrows! Hail Narrows!
Hail Green and Gold.
True as of old.
Hail Narrows! Hail Narrows!
Hail to ole' N.H.S.
RAH! RAH!

A Note of Appreciation

Quite often through the years, through innumerable acts of kindness, a certain person seeks to enrich the school life of all students —

One who with all seriousness shares her wisdom and acquired knowledge to help us learn when we need guidance —

One who never gets too involved in her work to be our friend —

We thank you for being the person you are; and choose to show you in this way

Mrs. Lucy M. Kirk

Foreword

As the Senior Class of 1974, we must prepare to depart from the sheltered halls of N. H. S. But, before we go, we must pause a moment to express our gratitude to you for . . . .

. . . . the quality of education,

. . . . guiding us in the responsibility of leadership, and determination,

. . . . the ability to win with pride and lose with honor,

. . . . teaching us the value of friendships,

. . . . laying the very basis of our entire lives,

. . . . just being a wonderful memory,

. . . . all the many things that cannot be counted or expressed in words.

Now, we march silently into the future, but we will always be able to look back and proudly say:

"I'M A GRADUATE OF NARROWS HIGH SCHOOL, HOME OF THE GREENWAVES."

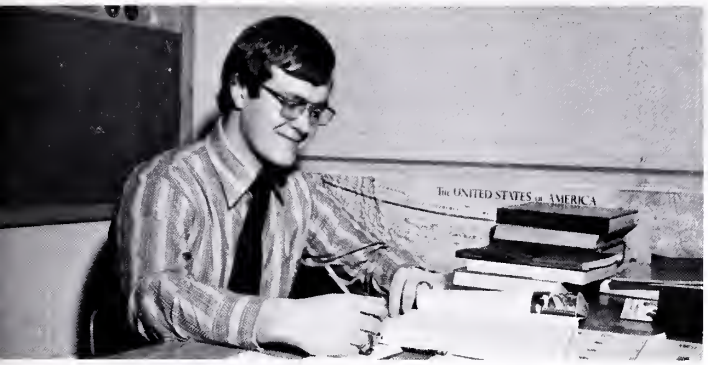
SNAPS



When I grow up, I wanna be . . .

We're ready if you are!

Nothing but 110%.

Have you thought about using footguard?

Shucks! Phillip's going streaking and I've got choir practice!

It's a streaker!

Wonder what those two are up to?
